

How to set up your Student Blog

BY DIS STUDY ABROAD

How to create a wix blog website in 5

easy steps.

1. Pick your template and domain
2. Customize your template
3. Add required pages
4. Write your first blog post
5. Publish your site

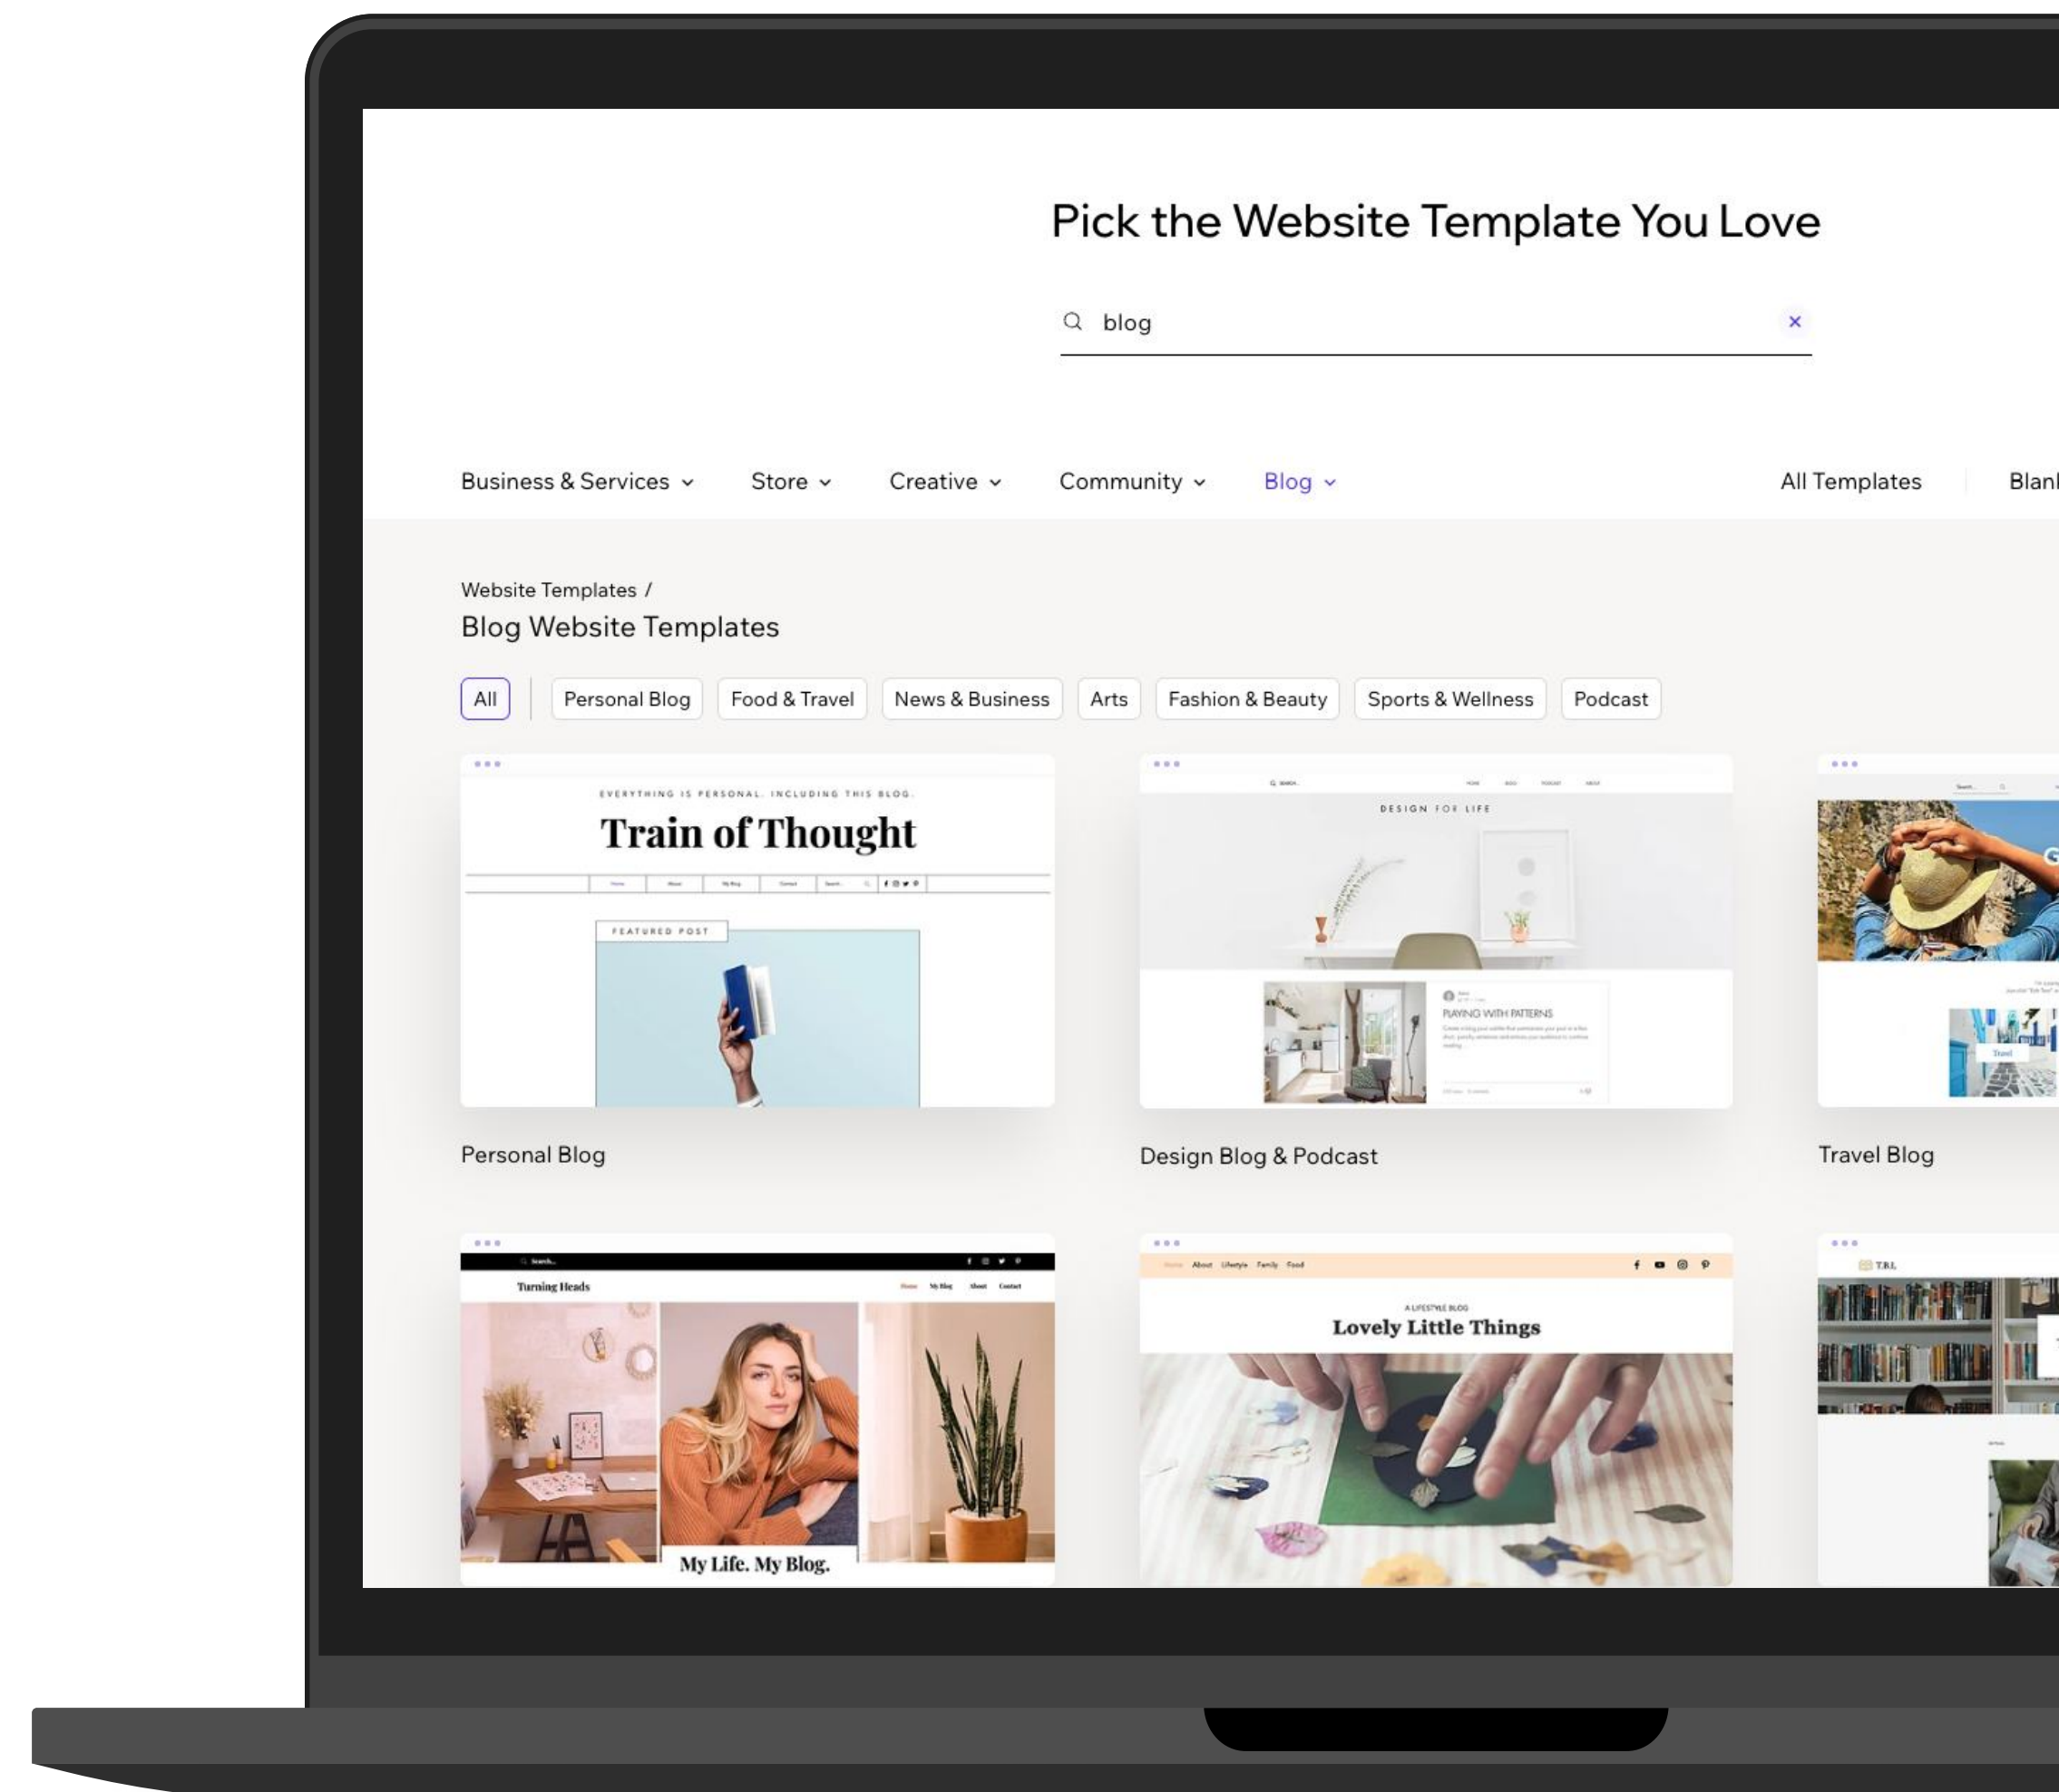

1

Pick your template and domain

First, pick a blog name and website domain.
Choose a blog title that feels like you!
Consult former student blogs for inspiration.

Don't pay for your domain – just choose the free option.

Then choose a pre-made blog template. This is the most efficient way to get your blog up and running.

2

Customize your template

Make it your own

You can personalize the template with your preferred colors and fonts.

You don't need to spend too much time on this part for now!

3

Add required pages

Create your blog pages

Add an ‘about me’ and a ‘contact me’ page.

Ensure that your blog opens to a home page!
From there readers should be able to navigate to other pages, including a ‘blog posts’ page once you’ve published your first blog.

If you want, you can get creative and add a gallery and other themed pages.

Write your first blog

How to write your first post

In this first pre-departure post, write about why you chose to study abroad and your goals for the upcoming semester.

Some questions to consider:

- What drew you to Scandinavia and DIS?
- What do you hope to learn about while abroad?
- What are your hopes, dreams, and worries?

Blog formatting tips

1. Insert media

The best blogs are more than just words! Bring in photos, videos, and graphics - whatever supplements your story and helps it pop.

2. Use line breaks and short grafs

Help your readers by chunking information. Generally speaking, short, digestible paragraphs help users follow your story and keep reading.

3. Use bolding, headers, and subheaders

Using this formatting tends to give your blog a nice structure.

4. Hyperlink

Add links to help your reader find useful information. Put yourself in your readers' shoes and lead them to worthwhile resources.

5

Publish your site

Launch your website

Once you're ready, hit publish.
Then send in your blogger application!
